Sfi for Academics SFIA

Swedish for immigrants with vocational training

Do you have an academic degree from another country? Or, is your goal to pursue an academic degree? Would you like to study an intensive course in vocational oriented Swedish and hurry up the progress to employment?

We have the course for you!

Sfi Lund organizes intensive studies in Swedish for immigrants, Sfi, in the central parts of Lund. Sfi Lund is organized by Folkhögskolan Hvilan in collaboration with Folkuniversitetet.

SFIA is suited for you who

- ☑ Has started or completed a foreign academic degree within economics, history, law, natural science or social sciences and needs to prepare for the employment market and/or complementary studies.
- ☑ Has completed upper secondary school education, wants to study at a university and needs to be prepared for academic studies.
- ☑ Is able to study 25 hours a week.

SFIA offers you

- ☑ A Sfi course of Studieväg 2 or Studieväg 3, level C and D.
- ☑ To start at your language level with individual planning.
- ☑ Authentic texts and assignments for vocational oriented Swedish.
- ☑ A professional portfolio.
- ☑ Project oriented work with themes, study visits and guest lecturers.
- ☑ Information on studying at a university in Sweden.
- ☑ Information about the Swedish employment market.
- ☑ Networking with people from all over the world with a similar educational and professional background.

Student finances

The education is free of charge. All literature can be borrowed at the school. Sfi students are not entitled to student loans or student aid. Note! It is important that you send your foreign qualifications and grades to the University and College Council for a valuation of your degree. This can simplify the process of applying for a job in Sweden.

Adress: Skomakaregatan 8, Lund
