2nd Transnational Partnership Council at Athens, Greece hosted by Coordinator ‘The Smile of the Child’

[Athens, 31/12/2024]

HUMAN project’s partners & stakeholders met at Athens, Greece in 3rd & 4th December 2024 for the 2nd Transnational Partnership Council while in parallel they participated in the International conference ‘Preventing and addressing bullying and violence among minors’ which was co-organized by ‘European Antibullying Network’ and ‘The Smile of the Child’, under the auspices of the Ministry of Education, Religious Affairs and Sports of Greece and the Ministry of Education, Sports and Youth of Cyprus.

The International conference was held on Tuesday, 3 December at the Novotel Athens Hotel, in the center of Athens, with more than 100 participants from Greece and several other countries across Europe (Croatia, Cyprus, Iceland, Ireland, Italy, Lithuania, Norway, Slovenia, Spain, Sweden and the UK, a.o.), including teachers, educators, civil society actors, state authorities and other stakeholders. The Conference was opened by representatives of the European Student Volunteer Network YouSmile of ‘The Smile of the Child’, which consist the Youth Panel for Diversity in Greece in the framework of HUMAN project , who stressed that ‘Change starts with us, but we need your help too. Those who are here today have the power and the will to change a child’s life’.

During the International conference, HUMAN project and past EU funded projects like HIT & YCREATE were presented from Rinova Málaga S.L. with focus on how investing in the education of professionals can lead to strengthening the resilience of young people to counter hate speech online & offline. HUMAN project’s partners & stakeholders presented a variety of prevention actions and learning, practice-based programmes to combat youth
