NEWSLETTER 3– FINAL ACTIVITIES OF THE PEER4INCLUSION PROJECT – May 2024

Peer4Inclusion team completed all project results and had a chance to present them in validation and testing phases and in the local events organized by each partner country with the participation of migrants, educators, learners, and local authorities!

Validation Phase of the Handbook

Peer4Inclusion handbook is completed and shared with the target group. The project partnership got very positive feedback regarding the handbook. During the face-to-face and online meetings, the target group of the project stated that the document is very guiding and helpful to be used for their coming studies!

Testing Phase of the Training Course

The Training Course of the Peer4Inclusion project is designed in the light of Peer Mentoring Program Cycle. More than 40 participants were included in the Testing Phase of the Training Course. The overall feedback of the testing phases conducted in Türkiye, Sweden and Spain was very positive and supportive. The participants shared their comments and feedback in a constructive way.

Local Events of the Peer4Inclusion Project

The project team organized local events in partner countries to come together with the target group of the project. In these events, project partners shared the final version of the project results and exchanged ideas regarding the effectiveness of the project activities. These events were great chance to disseminate the project results and to meet the target group in a sincere atmosphere!
